LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—New styles in summer millinery at Josie Briggs'.

—Alpen coats, $1 and upwards, at 36-41 HARVEY'S.

—That little sprinkle Sunday morn- complished with little except to keep some away from church.

—Large assortment of children's, boy's and men's straw hats, at 36-41 HARVEY'S.

—30-41, say, have you seen that cheap table of boots and shoes at Frank B. Serago's?

—Miss Hattie Elliott, by her slaying at the band concert, won much praise and many wishes to hear her again.

—A number of locals which ought to have appeared this week, are unavoidably crowded out by lack of space and time.

—Joel Jeffries had one leg broken Tuesday, by a team running, with which he was hauling a load of cheese boxes.

—A drive to Elyria and back in the last week, showed us more barren fields, dried-up pastures, and unpromising gardens than we ever saw at this season before.

—A woman who had occasion to enter the county offices in the Court House, thinks the question of the new building has been agitated very mildly, and that the county officers who work there deserve excellent pay for submitting to stay in such damp, dark, unwholesome dens; that their lives should be heavily insured against typhoid fever, diphtheria, cholera and the plague; and that women inspectors might, with profit, be appointed to oversee the general house-keeping in public buildings with a view to improve and preserve their sanitary condition. As it is, the Court House is a disgrace to the intelligence and refinement of Lorain county.

—Our assortment is now complete in clothing, from 10 cent linen collar to a mammoth suit. W. W. HARVEY.

—A large party of emigrants passed, through town on Friday last week, for Nebraska and Iowa. They were in fine spirits and looking quite tidy considering their tedious ride from Central Pennsylvania.

—Lost.—A promissory note dated July 16th, 1869, made payable to Shubal Smith, for amount of $24.00, due one year from date. The holder will be suitably rewarded by leaving the same at this office. 34-4t

—Charles Griffin, formerly of Litchfield, gave a temperance address here a week ago Sunday evening, taking radical ground, would banish wine from the communion table, etc., which should have been mentioned last week.

—In "Lawson's Curative" will be found a special remedial agent for rheumatism, neuralgia, and diseases of the nerves. It assists nature in driving out these diseases and in healing and soothing the shattered nerves.

—Mr. Will Hemenway having bought the entire interest of the late Asahel Cline in the mill and lumber business, the business will be continued under the firm name of C. W. Hemenway & Co. All accounts of Crane & Hemenway will be settled by the new firm.

—The nerves are ever on the rack while rheumatism, neuralgia, palsy, headache or sciatica are lurking in the system. To remove the disease and disordered nerves, nothing has been found more effective than "Lawson's Curative."

—We have printed receipts for coloring with directions for use, which we give to all purchasing dye stuffs at our store and will be found reliable.

—J. W. HOUGHTON.

—The best argument that can be used in favor of "Lawson's Curative," is that it is used by physicians of eminent skill in their profession, and can always be relied upon as a safe, simple and effective cure for the many diseases referred to in the advertisement.

—In the report of the Free Dispensary of Cleveland, the services of Dr. Hattie Warren, one of Wellington's daughters, are mentioned as having been very efficient in helping on the good work of furnishing medical aid to multitudes of the worthy poor among women and children.

—S. W. Arnold has the agency of the New Peerless Reaper and Mower, manufactured at Canton, Ohio, which is excelled by none and equaled by few. He has two machines, one Mower and one Reaper combined, which will be on exhibition at Wellington.

—The modest layman who gave such a good gift to the M. E. Church recently, would not allow us to mention the good news. But praiseworthy acts, though they travel slowly, compare with swift-footed slanders like "murder," in their own good time "will out," and other papers have got hold of the fact while we were faithfully preserving silence.

—Don't forget to call at H. Wadsworth & Sons' new planing mill, on Railroad street, for your Doors, Sash, Blinds, Lumber and Shingles. We have a large stock on hand and are selling at prices lower than ever before. Cistern taps of all sizes made to order. We have on hand a stock of the Flanders Wooden Eave-trough, which is just the thing for barns, warehouses, &c.

—WADSWORTH & SONS.

—Parties in need of spec or eye glasses, whether in gold, silver or steel frames, will still find a splendid assortment at Houghton's. Remember that we guarantee satisfaction and warrant all our best frames against breakage from any defect in quality. The lens cannot be surpassed. There is absolutely nothing in the market superior to them in clearness and perfection. Repairing of all kinds done promptly.

—GRAND excursion to China and return in twenty-four hours. The excursion party of forty persons will leave Wellington, Friday, the 30th of May, going up in a balloon, and tying the balloon up, then allowing the earth to move toward Penfield for twelve hours; then untying and landing in China. The next evening returning by the same process. They think by timing themselves correctly, they can land within two or three miles of Wellington. The thing looks rather fishy to us, but the excursionists appear confident of success.

—A large line of Gent's Hosiery for sale cheap at Husted Bros'.

—The very best groceries to be had will be found at Harvey's. 36-41

—The money raised at the union meeting held in the Congregational Church some time ago for the relief of colored refugees in Kansas, was sent by the committee to Gov. J. P. St. John of Kansas.

—The Governor acknowledged the amount, $67.57, saying: "Please accept the thanks of our association with the assurance that the same shall be faithfully used for the benefit of the poor and oppressed people for whom it is intended. So far we have managed to prevent any actual suffering in our midst among this class of people, and shall continue to do our whole duty toward them."

—Ladies' Misses' Children's French and Curcio Kid Shoes made to order, at Frank B. Serago's.

—A. S. Powers, merchant tailor, has received a nice lot of new goods, and is prepared to get up suits in good style, and cheaper than ever.

—White vests, 75 cents and upwards, at Harvey's.

—dred persons who signed a request for a repetition of the concert, attended. We have no language to do justice to such shabby treatment, and we therefore disclaim it right here, hoping that a like circumstance will never occur again in Wellington.

There will be a trotting match at Valentine Shank's track in Litchfield, on Thursday, P. M., June 6th. The celebrated trotting horse, Gen. Hayes, and some of his stock will be shown there.

Mrs. William Howk.

Charlotte E. Herick was born at Tyingham, Mass., in July 1806, and died at Wellington, O., May 19th, 1879. Her father Col. Herick, moved to the adjoining town of Lee, and here she spent her girlhood and early married life. She was a playmate and schoolmate of William Howk until she became his wife in 1830.

Those who remember her younger womanhood, say that the acquaintance of her later years would scarcely be able to understand that one so grave and impenetrable in her reserve, had been in youth remarkable for her vivacity and exuberance of spirit. She sang a clear and beautiful alto, her voice being well cultivated in its day, and she was for years a member of the choir in the Presbyterian Church at Lee, of which Rev. Dr. Hyde, Pres. of Williams College, was pastor. During this time Dr. Not of Boston, an evangelical preacher of great power, labored in a revival there, and the subject of this notice was happily converted. She united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and continued a devoted member until her death, a period of at least fifty years.

Mr. and
